FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JERUSALEM AUTHOR AND PUBLISHER ANNOUNCE LATEST RELEASE
The Legend of Cosmo and the Archangel Published by French Creek Press

JERUSALEM – French Creek Press is pleased to announce the release of a new novel by Joseph Kaufman, The Legend of Cosmo and the Archangel. Kaufman's style speaks about choices, changes, and the different response each person can have to the same situations. The two protagonists, intertwined by the past, travel the globe: one in pursuit, one the pursued. Only the death of one resolves the intense relationship.

The author, Joseph Kaufman, was born in 1955 in Pittsfield, Mass., and raised in the GE town of 40,000 where Jack Welch started out, located one hour west of Springfield and one hour east of Albany. In creating The Legend of Cosmo and the Archangel, Kaufman melds together the experience of Bennington College and the tutelage of Bernard Malamud, the Peace Corps in Africa, yeshiva in Israel, and years working for the family business.

The Legend of Cosmo and the Archangel, published by French Creek Press, is available for purchase worldwide on Amazon.com and within Israel at frenchcreekpress.com. French Creek Press offers all traditional publishing services. In addition French Creek Press uses print on demand for the do-it-yourself author and full social media support as the primary marketing drive.
